Light.

There is no light
so good or so cheap
as the British-made

WELSBACH

Welsbach Light is the combination of the wonderful Welsbach Kern Gas Burner with Mantles of British manufacture. Only in this way do you obtain the light that is the lightest, softest and cheapest. There is no other burner, except the Welsbach Kern No. 3, which will give you a 75 candle power light with a gas consumption of only 3 ft. per hour.

Every genuine British-made Welsbach burner and mantle bears the Registered Trade Mark "AUR."

Welsbach Light has been adapted to every conceivable purpose from tiny cable lights to the Storm-proof Self-Intensifying Lamps of 600 candle Power. It is self-contained, no special traps or clumsy apparatus required.

All who desire more light at less cost should therefore write for particulars and Catalogues of Welsbach Light to the Sole Agents in China of the Welsbach Incandescent Gas Light Co., Ltd., London.

HOME POLITICS.

Probable Election Next Year.

A London correspondent writes: The Liberal Government are acting boldly up to their promises on the Licensing question by endeavouring to get back into the hands of the State the monopoly value. They are, however, losing ground very fast as the result,
for the publicans are making it fearfully hot for them, and I regret to say the electors are following the advice of the brewers and publicans. Twelfth Reform is making great headway. Trade is declining and with it the obdurate is setting in against the Government. The Chancellor of the Exchequer has just given the first instalment of Old Age Pensions—5/- a week to all men over 70 years of age. It is a start in the right direction but a very poor thing though. Still it is a start and indicates which way the wind is blowing. It looks like an election next year and if so, we shall see a Parliament, I believe, in the hands of the Labour Party and the Irish Party.

MURDEROUS MALAYS.

Kill Three Policemen.

We (D. N. Borneo Herald) regret to have to report that on the 4th inst. Paitan Station near Jambongan was attacked and raided, the facts at the time of going to press are as follows:—

"It appears that on the 2nd inst. L. C.
229 Kekar Singh together with P. C. 450
Anjun proceeded to Kampong Batangan to serve a warrant to arrest one Kalakan who had openly disobeyed the orders of the D. (1). The two police were accompanied by one Musah a close relative of Kalakan's and another native. At 4 o'clock the same afternoon Musah and his companion returned to the Police Station but neither L. C. Kekar Singh or P. C. 450 Anjun came back and Musah informed P. C. 187 Pagat Singh that they had been killed, when attempting to serve the warrant on Kalakan. Apparently when Musah returned to the Police Station at Paitan he attempted to ascend the steps of the house but before doing so Pagat Singh told him to lay down his weapon, a parang, which he did. He, Musah, then entered the Police Station and seized Pagat Singh's rifle, clubbing him with it from behind, he then made a slashing blow at him with his parang cutting him across the right shoulder and back. He fell down and managed to crawl into the jungle, and took protection in the house of one Urai, who managed to get him away in his palau to Trusan Sugut where he gave information of what had occurred to the L. C. in charge.
Pagat Singh was subsequently brought to Sandakan where he is now being attended by the P.M.O. Musah and his followers numbering about forty males in all have looted all the kedais at Simpangang (Paitan) they also took three Government rifles and ammunition from the Police Station.
Active measures are being taken and it is to be hoped that the offenders will soon be caught. The list of casualties is as follows:—
L. C. 229 Kekar Singh killed.
P. C. 450 Anjun "
" 194 Ongkoh "
" 187 Pagat Singh wounded.
P. C. Pagat Singh in Sandakan Hospital is, we are glad to say on the high road to recovery.

Later News.—Mr Brockenbury the D.O., reconnoitring with 4 Dyaks came into touch with Musah's gang who fired on him wounding one Dyak. Captain Bond and 37 police arrived at Jambongan by the s.s.
Labuan on the 14th inst.

"DON'T DO IT AGAIN."

Mr Secretary Taft, of the United States, says he was "once a guest at a hotel in a small western town.

"I was assigned to a room. There was no water or towel in the room, and I rang," says the Secretary. "There was no reply. I rang again. Still no reply. And again and again, and yet again I rang, and finally a waiter appeared.
"This waiter was a robust man, of stern and forbidding aspect.
"Did you ring?" he said, in a rumbling bass voice.
"I did," I answered.
"Well, don't do it again," said the waiter with a menacing scowl, as he withdrew."

BIRTHDAY HONOURS

C.M.G. FOR HON. MR. WEI YUK.

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

LONDON, June 25.

The list of birthday honours has been gazetted.

Sir Anthony Macdonnell, lately Under Secretary to Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; the Right Hon. George Whiteley, lately Whip to the Liberal Party; Sir Angus Halden, Bart, manufacturer, and Mr. J. W. Phillips, M.P. for Pembroke, have been raised to the peerage.

There have been eight appointments to the Privy Council, ten baronetcies have been created and twenty-three knightships have been conferred; the two latter mostly being awarded to members of Parliament, doctors and civil servants.

Mr. Edward Lewis Brockman of the Federated Malay States civil service has been made a Companion of the most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George (C.M.G.), and a similar honour has been conferred upon the Hon. Mr. Wei Yuk, M.J.C. of Hongkong.

Sixteen other colonials have been honoured.

Hon Mr Wei Yuk, C.M.G.

The many friends of the Hon Mr Wei Yuk, C.M.G., will be pleased to congratulate him upon the honour bestowed upon him. In the course of his long connection with public life he has done some sterling work, and particularly in early days most active in his efforts to promote the welfare of the Colony. He has been associated with numerous bodies having for their object the well-being of the Colony, and has served on all commissions appointed by the Government to enquire into matters affecting the Chinese since the commencement of his public career. This has entailed an immense amount of time and trouble, and the honour that now comes is the recognition of the King.

When the news was conveyed to Mr Wei Yuk this morning by a Chinese Mail representative he was modest in his words. He was grateful for the distinction, and he was glad of it, for he had done his best.

Mr Wei Yuk, according to the Chinese Mail, was born in 1849 at Hongkong, and was educated, first by private tutor, next at the Central School, and later at Stonyhurst School, England, and the Dollar Institution, Scotland. After a tour through Europe he entered the service of the Chartered Mercantile Bank of India, London and China, now the Mercantile Bank of India, Ltd. On the death of his father, proprietor of the bank, he retired from its services for three years, and rejoined as a partner in 1875, and has since held that position. He was created a J.P. in 1883, and an Unofficial Member of the Legislative Council, representing the Chinese, in 1896.

Mr Wei Yuk, it may be mentioned, was presented with a gold medal and letter of thanks by the general public, and a letter of thanks from the Chinese community for services during the plague epidemic of 1894. He was, 17 years ago, the originator of the idea of a railway from Kowloon to Canton, and thence to Peking, and spent large sums of money furthering the scheme, which failed then owing to the opposition of the officials.

CHINESE OFFICIALS.

SEEK FOR REINSTATEMENT.

(Chinese Mail's Service.)

PEKING, June 25.

Three hundred officials, who were degraded by Shun Chun Hsen, while the latter was Viceroy of Canton, have sent to the Board a Memorial asking to be reinstated. The Board refused to submit the Memorial to the Throne.

CHINA'S NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

(Chinese Mail's Service.)

PEKING, June 25.

The Grand Council has met several times to consider memorials received from various provinces requesting the opening of a national assembly. The resolution of the Council was to declare the Government's intention for the information of the public in the course of a month regarding the national assembly.

STEARNS' HEADACHE CURE—Nervous, or bilious headaches cured safely and quickly. All chemists. Why not try it?

REFUSED TO STOP.

The Hon Commander Basil Taylor, R.N., imposed a fine of $5, or 14 days' goal on the master of the s.s. Kam Po, at the Marine Court today, for failing to stop when called upon to do so, by a police constable. The evidence was to the effect that the officer called upon defendant to stop, but he did not do so, and the next thing was that he saw him firing up and then turned and went for the nearest pier. They were nearly at right angles to each other, and the defendant ran his boat alongside the pier, and the passengers, who were standing on the gun-whale, immediately jumped off and ran away along the pier. There was another boat alongside and some of the passengers tried to escape on to that. When questioned defendant had refused to speak. Mr. O. D. Thomson appeared for the defendant.

INSPECTOR WARNOCK'S RETIREMENT.

Valedictory Remarks By Mr J. H. Kemp.

At the Magistrate's this morning, Mr J. H. Kemp addressed a few valedictory remarks to Inspector W. Warnock who has just retired on a pension after twenty-two years' faithful service as a member of the police force. Mr. Kemp was accompanied on the bench by the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Mr. J. R. Wood, Magistrate, and amongst those in the body of the Court were Chief Detective Inspector Hanson, Inspectors W. Robertson, W. Withers, W. A. Ritchie, D. McHardy, Fenton, Sanitary Inspector Ingram, Mr. G. Hogarth and a number of detectives, sergeants and policemen.

Mr. Kemp said—Inspector Warnock, I have asked you to come to the Court this morning, that I may have an opportunity of saying a few words to you. Mr. Wood tells me that I may also speak for him, as well as for myself. We congratulate you on your having reached your well earned retirement on pension, but for ourselves we deeply regret your departure. I may say how I greatly appreciate the help I have had from you personally, as well as from the other members of the Police Force. I think that perhaps the public don't quite realize the good work done by the police, both for the defence and the prosecution. I should like to refer to one of the highest qualities of police officers, and that is certainly one of the most difficult of attainment, and one more valued than anything else by a Magistrate, that is impartiality of mind and fairness towards the prisoner. I remember many years ago when I was sitting here before a sergeant who was charging a prisoner, showed clearly that he was anxious for a conviction. The case was not a strong one and I suppose he saw that I was wavering in my decision, and I began to think about and express my views, and in doing so, I evidently missed some practical point in the evidence or must not have given it its proper value. It told in the present favour, yet the sergeant told me of the practical point in that evidence. I convicted the prisoner and I found that the sergeant had two or three previous convictions against the man and I have found ever since that I could trust the sergeant's advice. For fairness towards his prisoners as I knew that any evidence in his possession in the prisoner's favour, would be brought forward. I only want to say that I know how well you did, and I realize that the other side may be right after all, and for one who is engaged in the prosecution for a number of years, to bear an open mind, and I think that the members of the police force have succeeded in that. I think you have displayed that quality in a remarkable degree. You have shown a rare quality also ability, tact and energy in the performance of your difficult duties and carried out thoroughly the conditions of a body of men of whom any one may be proud to belong as a member. I have nothing more to say but to wish you a safe and pleasant voyage and a happy retirement in the Home country.

Inspector Warnock replied—I thank you for the kind words of which I feel unworthy. I have done my duty to the best of my ability.

THE CANTON FLOOD.

(From Our Correspondent.)

CANTON, June 25.

The entire Chinese Navy in South China has been placed at the disposal of the Relief Committee for the conveyance of food to the sufferers from the flood.

The food which is being forwarded to the affected districts consists of rice, paste, biscuits, &c.

Hongkong has advised shipping 40 piculs of biscuits and a further remittance of $10,000 making $20,000 in all up to today.

In Canton all portable foods have been purchased for the sufferers and arrangements are being made to buy rice-paste from Hongkong.

Under the control of the Self Government Society several relief parties have been started, independent of those who have already done excellent work. The same Society has appropriated a sum of Teels 6,000 and obtained a loan of Teels 4,000, making in all Teels 10,000, with which provisions are being provided for distribution. Numerous wires have been despatched to Chinese abroad inviting subscriptions.

The Subscription List.

Up to date the subscription list amounts to $80,000 of which Chinese in Hongkong contribute $20,000. Total $100,000. Sin Hui Kuo $10,000, and undertakes to buy $30,000 worth of rice. The Marine Product Guild contributes 60 piculs of potatoes, 22 piculs of biscuits, 6 piculs of rice-paste and one packet of medicines.

A Queen's College Donation.

The boys and Chinese Staff of Queen's College have subscribed $491.08 and sent it to the Tung Wah Hospital, as their mite to relieve the distress in South China.

APPLICATION FOR RECEIVING ORDER.

Mr D. Stevenson applied at the Bankruptcy Court this morning, before the Chief Justice, Sir F. Pigott, for a receiving order in the case of W. A. Mitchell, Captain of the s.s. Fook Sang. The liabilities were $20,763 and the assets $600, which had been paid into Court. Applicant was also willing to pay $100 per month out of his salary and attributed his insolvency to divorce proceedings in Scotland, instituted against his wife, and in being unable to recover damages from the respondent therein, owing to the imperfect legislation of the Colony.

His Lordship granted the application.

THE AUXETOPHONE.

Novel Musical Instrument.

The tremendous strides science has made during the present century has been shown from time to time in the really wonderful evolution of the talking machine. The latest development is the Auxetophone, produced by the experts at the Victor Laboratory, and this instrument reproduces with wonderful accuracy and volume an exact replica of the most famous singers and bands of the period. Our representative had an opportunity of judging for himself and the result speaks for itself. Residents have a like opportunity afforded them, for all that is necessary is to pay a visit to the store of either The Robinson Piano Company, or Messrs. Montrose & Co., Limited. So great is the volume of sound attained that a brief description of the mechanism may be of interest.

The magnificent tone volume is obtained in the following manner: A steel reel sound-box takes the place of the mica diaphragm sound-box. The needle, travelling in the sound-wave groove of the Victor records, picks up the vibrations, produced originally by the voices and instruments of the Victor artists, and conveys them to the steel reeds of the sound-box. At this point the vibrations of these reeds cut off and release a current of air in such a way as to form voluminous sound waves of the purest quality. To create a constant and even supply of compressed air, a specially designed rotary blower is used, driven by a noiseless electric motor, also of special design. The air from this blower passes through a condenser, the office of which is to remove the surplus moisture and oil. A flexible tube conducts the air from the condenser to an equalizing tank provided with a safety valve set to release at a specified pressure. The air is then further clarified by passing through an absorbent filter; thence it reaches the sound-box through a special flexible tube. Its further progress is here retarded by the reeds, which is connected directly with the needle. This valve is of a most delicate construction and is adjusted to give a constant strength into melody of orchestral songs, the full rounded tones being clear and natural.

A good illustration was given of the realistic properties of the Auxetophone at a concert given by the Victoria Concert Society, at the Lyceum Theatre, on one of these instruments. The Auxetophone was arranged behind a screen, where also was the famous English tenor John Harrison. A Gramophone and Victor records and the Auxetophone and John Harrison sang "The day" and after stepped in view of the public. The same song was sung by John Harrison for the Gramophone and the screen again fell and the Auxetophone and John Harrison sang "The day" and after stepped in view of the public. The same song was sung by John Harrison for the Gramophone and the screen again fell and the Auxetophone and John Harrison sang "The day" and after stepped in view of the public.

The figures relating to the import and export trade of the port, given in previous years, have, as pointed out annually, been based upon the returns of the Customs, which are characterized as unsatisfactory and the results as erroneous and misleading. As it is obvious that such returns have no value, they are discontinued in the form they have hitherto taken, but the agencies of the reports received are showing for purposes of comparison, in round numbers. These include imports of sugar and imports and exports of opium, of which accurate returns are rendered.

THE STANDING OF THE COLONY.

REPORT BY THE GOVERNOR.

The 1907 Depression.

The Governor's despatch, dated 24th inst., to the Secretary of State reviewing the Blue Book for 1907, was laid on the table of the Legislative Council yesterday afternoon. Sir Frederick wrote:

The revenue for the year, exclusive of land sales, amounted to $6,442,520 or $170,540 less than the previous year. Land sales amounted to $189,750 or $55,082 less than in 1906. The total revenue from all sources was therefore $6,632,270 or $425,731 less than in the previous year. All the main sources of revenue show an excess over 1906 with the exception of interest and land sales.

Legal fees, fees of Court, Post Office receipts, and of Government property brought in together $300,504 more than was estimated. The receipts under the remaining heads of revenue were altogether $146,240 less than were anticipated when the Budget was presented. The expenditure for the year was $5,028,553 exclusive of Public Works Extraordinary; inclusive of that item it was $5,757,233 or $175,407 less than the total expenditure of 1906.

Deducting from the actual receipts for 1907 the total expenditure, there was a surplus of $845,078 on the actual working of the year.

MILITARISM IN JAPAN.

A Brutal Officer.

The "Japan Times" translates from a newsagency's statement the following account of the brutality of an officer in the Azabu Third Regiment:—A lieutenant has acquired such notoriety among those below him in rank for his cruelty that he is called by the nickname of Lieutenant Demon. This unpopular young officer was appointed instructor of 21 privates, who were chosen as candidates for superior privates, to the great astonishment of those who were to be instructed by him. Lieutenant Shino seemed resolved to act up to his reputation. Both in the classroom and field his unmerciful way of treating his men gradually increased. He would appear in the class room with a large fencing bamboo with which he would administer severe blows to any soldier who incurred his ill-humour. On the 26th ult. Lieutenant Shino fell into a great rage with three privates, whose names are kept secret, for failure in their lessons. He took up the bamboo rod and struck the heads of the three privates, with great force. The blows were so hard that the young men swooned outright, blood trickling down from their heads. Lieutenant Shino was somewhat disturbed, and sent the three to the surgeon's quarters. Their wounds were examined and found to be severe, necessitating the confinement of the men for over a week. The gravity of the matter forbade its being kept secret. It was duly reported to the commander of the company and subsequently to Colonel Tanaka, the Commander of the Regiment.

CHINESE SEAMEN.

So effectively has the National Sailors' and Firemen's Union worked during the past week, (says the "L. and C. Express May 29) that no Chinese have been signed on at the Board of Trade Offices in Peking. Several Chinese crews have been paid off, and in each case they have been escorted to their quarters by police. The general secretary of the Union, Mr. Edmund Cathery, has received a letter from the President of the Board of Trade to the effect that Mr. Churchill will be very glad to receive a deputation of seamen with reference to the question of Chinese on British ships.
Mr. Havelock Wilson, M.P., secretary of the Seamen's and Firemen's Union, states that he has received information to the effect that arising out of the preference for employing Chinamen shown by certain shipowners, 250 British seamen, who were members of the Shipping Federation, had, at Newport, Monmouthshire, handed in Federation tickets as a protest against engaging Chinese, and the compulsory medical examination of British sailors. Mr. Wilson added that similar notices have been adopted at Barry, Cardiff, and North and South Shields, and that the feeling was spreading to all ports in the United Kingdom.

THE POWER OF HOPE.

Hope's magical compound
To increase our strength we've found;
It can charm our biggest problems quite away.
With its impulse, which we borrow,
What lots more than we can ever do to-day.

A WISE DOCTOR.

WATER TIGHT—COLLECTOR SMITH OF BOMBAY HAD RHEUMATISM HIS PHYSICIAN.

RECOMMENDED DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

THEY CURED HIM RHEUMATISM STEADILY.

Read His Story.

MR. C. H. J. SMITH, a ticket-collector on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway, related the following facts to a reporter who called at his home, St. Peter's School, Matunga, Bombay, just lately.

"In the course of my duty as a ticket-collector, I am exposed to all sorts of weather, often having to work in the heavy rain. About two years ago I began to get frightful pains in the knees and ankles, and after trying various medicines without getting any better, I had to go to a doctor for advice and assistance. He diagnosed my complaint as Rheumatism, and prescribed Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, telling me that

MANY OF HIS PATIENTS had been cured by these Pills of Rheumatism and other complaints.

"So I commenced to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after the second bottle I found that my pains had lessened and that I could walk with greater ease on an impure and sticky road. The continued use of the Pills for some time longer not only cured the Rheumatism, but built up my system, making me feel stronger and more robust than before. I have lived most of my life in India, leaving England when I was a baby, so have been subjected to this hot and trying climate for years. I feel that it is only through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I have been able to keep to my work on the Railway."

MY PRESENT HEALTHY condition is due to their use, and I am thankful for the good they have done me. My testimony may be published for the information of others who are distressed with Rheumatism."

Wet and cold—aggravate Rheumatism, but they do not cause it; the cause is a poisonous acid in the blood. The reason why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cure Rheumatism is because they cut direct on the blood, purifying and at the same time strengthening it, and thus the poisonous acid is driven from the system. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured not only thousands of cases of Rheumatism, often in its severest form, but they are also the proved remedy for many other ailments due primarily to an impure or weak blood supply, such as Anemia, Malaria, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Headaches, Early Decay, Nervous Debility, Spasms, Paralysis, Beri-Beri, Pimples, Boils, Eczema, and other Skin Disorders, as well as those special ailments which trouble ladies between youth and middle age. Obtainable at most shops where medicines are sold, they can also be had direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Cambridge, Mass., U.S.A., 4 bottles for $8 or 1 bottle for $1.50, post free. Men broken down by overwork, excesses, or residence in unhealthy climates are speedily restored by their use.
